

MINISTRY OF WATER AND IRRIGATION

Workshop on Capacity Development for Farm Management Strategies to Improve Crop-Water Productivity Using AquaCrop 06 July-10 July 2010 | Morogoro, Tanzania

ORGANIZING INSTITUTION

The workshop is organised by the Ministry of Water and Irrigation through the department of Irrigation and Technical services with collaboration of Sokoine University of agriculture (SUA).

PARTICIPANTS

Typically participants will come within the department for zones irrigation unit. A maximum of 20 Participants will attend the workshop which are Irrigation Engineers, Researchers, and Agronomists.

OBJECTIVE

To train participants in the practical applications of AquaCrop in order to improve their skills in strategic farm management practices toward increasing crop water productivity in irrigated production systems in the country.

TRAINERS

we are expecting to have the following Trainers during the workshop

1. Dr Fredrick C.Kahimba (Lecturer-Sokoine University of Agriculture)
2. Eng Muyenjwa Maugo (Irrigation Engineer-Ministry of Water and Irrigation).
3. Prof M.Bancy(IMAWESA-Nairobi)