

Pamella Temu is currently an Assistant Director of Planning, Monitoring and Assessment at the Department of Water Resources.

She holds a M. Sc. (Merit), in Sustainable Management of the Water Environment from the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, United Kingdom and BSc. (Honors) Environmental Engineering from University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. She is the Water and Environmental Expert with over 16 years of experience in the Water Sector.

She has worked as a Principal Hydrologist at the Ministry of Water for 13 years with her technical competence includes Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM) and Development (IWRMD); Water Resources Assessment including hydrological modelling and Simulation (Hydroinformatics); Transboundary Water Resources Management; Catchment Management and Water Allocation Planning; Water Resources Applied Research; Hydrosystems Engineering Designs; Surface and Groundwater Resources Management; Project Planning, Financing and Management and Multi-Sectoral Coordination.